

NEWSMAKERS OF THE CHICAGO PROVINCE

Cristo Rey Jesuit High School held its first graduation ceremony on June 19. Fourteen of the sixteen graduates plan to attend college in the fall.

Daniel Hartnett, SJ, was appointed to the Frank W. Considine Chair in Applied Ethics at Loyola University Chicago. The Considine chair was established to focus public conversation on current topics of ethical importance in business, the professions, and public policy. Dan's responsibilities will include collaborating with the university, local communities, and the city of Chicago to better integrate Judeo-Christian ethical concerns into everyday life.

Gene Phillips, SJ, recently published Exiles in Hollywood: Major European Film Directors in America (Cranberry, NJ: Associated University Presses, 1998). His book is about five European directors: Fritz Lang, William Wyler, Billy Wilder, Otto Preminger, and Fred Zinnemann—who were forced into exile and who subsequently enriched the American motion picture industry with a reservoir of new talent that had been nurtured in Europe.

Michael Dorrier, SJ, pronounced final vows on June 28, in the Sacred Heart Chapel of Loyola University's Water Tower Campus in Chicago.

The Chicago Province gratefully acknowledges the deceased donors listed below who remembered the Jesuits in their estate plans. Many Jesuit ministries and programs have benefited from their extraordinary generosity. Please remember them and their families in your prayers.
