Partnership

Giving Thanks

Province Honors Partners

Jesuits from the Chicago Province regularly greet friends and benefactors at a variety of events and receptions, thanking them for their friendship, prayer, and financial support.

St. Xavier High School alums Don Olinger, Fr. Bob Dolan, SJ, Mick Owens and Dan Roche, reunited at the mission luncheon in Cincinnati. Fr. Dolan, who has been in Peru for 41 years, now serves as the director of pastoral ministries at Colegio Cristo Rey High School in Tacna.

Fr. Jim O'Leary, SJ, with family members (from left) Dan and Brian and sister-in-law, Karen, at the mission luncheon in Chicago.

Mr. Pat McGrath, SJ, enjoys his visit with John and Jane Geldermann. Pat offered a morning of spiritual reflection with 80 Jesuit friends on July 24, in gratitude for their support during his years of formation. Pat will be ordained to the priesthood in July 2006.

The centerpiece of this happy family is Mrs. Adele Dolan, Fr. Bob Dolan's mother. Other family members (from left) are Jodi and John Dolan, Maridel Dolan Felger, Fr. Bob and Maureen Dolan Schwab. While on a visit from his mission in Peru, Fr. Dolan shared his ministry with guests at luncheons in Cincinnati and Chicago.

Fr. Edwin Daly, SJ, and Mr. Jim Fox renew a friendship that they have shared for 60 years. Fr. Daly has been serving in Delhi for 53 years; he celebrated his 60th anniversary of his entrance into the Society on August 20.

Fr. Daly enjoys visiting with family members (from left) Isabel Gallagher, Margaret Mangan, Janet Lyman and Robert Gallagher at the mission luncheon. Fr. Daly's family and friends lovingly support him and those he serves in his ministry in Delhi.

Fr. Terry Charlton, SJ, shares his inspirational ministry with friends, Lynn and Paul Ranieri, at a recent dinner at Brebeuf Preparatory School in Indianapolis. Fr. Charlton serves students who have been affected by the AIDS epidemic at St. Aloysius School, which he founded in Nairobi, Kenya.

In Gratitude

In gratitude for your prayer and financial support, the following item is offered as a gift to you (while supplies last) from the Chicago Province Jesuit Development Office. If you wish to obtain a copy of this item, please contact Eileen Meehan at (800) 922-5327 or Eileen@jesuits-chi.org.

Chicago Jesuit Academy Video

In September, the Chicago Province opened Chicago Jesuit Academy, a Nativity-model middle school serving economically disadvantaged young men on the West Side of Chicago. Last fall, the Province produced a video to introduce the school and the Nativity model of education to Chicago. You can view the video at www.cjacademy.org or you can request a DVD or VHS copy.
